Re: FOIA Request NLRB-2023-001696

Dear Kim Vallie (Jackson Lewis P.C.):

This is in response to your request, under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, received on July 10, 2023, in which you seek “any and all records in the possession of the NLRB related to [a named individual] against U.S. Steel including, but not limited to, United States Steel Corporation Great Lakes Works Division, Case No. 07-CA-308263.” You assumed financial responsibility for the processing of your request in the amount of $100.00.

We acknowledged your request on July 10, 2023.

Your request as filed, seeking records related to a specifically named individual, is denied. The FOIA Branch does not search for records using an individual’s name. Such a search would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of that individual. Specifically, FOIA case law establishes that individuals named in law enforcement investigatory files, including charging parties, witnesses, investigators, and informants, have a protectible privacy interest. See, e.g., Davis v. Dep’t of Justice, 968 F.2d 1276, 1281 (D.C. Cir. 1992); Schrecker v. Dep’t. of Justice, 349 F.3d 657, 661 (D.C. Cir. 2003).

However, we were able to conduct a search of the Agency’s electronic casehandling system, NxGen because you provided a NLRB case number. After retrieval and review of Case No. 07-CA-308263, I have determined that certain records are part of the investigative file in an open case before the Agency’s Region 7 office, and are exempt from disclosure pursuant to Exemption 7(A) of the FOIA. 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(7)(A). Exemption 7(A) allows an agency to withhold records included in an open investigatory file where disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings. See NLRB v. Robbins Tire & Rubber Co., 437 U.S. 214, 236 (1978). Therefore, given the open status of the requested case pending before the Region, the investigatory records in the case file are being withheld in full at this time pursuant to Exemption 7(A).

Your request is thus granted to the extent that I have attached the formal records in the case, which are available to the public pursuant to NLRB FOIA regulations regardless of the open or closed status of a case. The formal records at this time include the charge, the amended docketing letters to the parties, and the Regional Director's letter deferring the case. Upon my review of these records, redactions have been made to certain information to protect the privacy interests of individuals named in the records. These redactions were made pursuant to FOIA Exemption 6, which protects personally identifying information the release of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, and FOIA Exemption 7(C), which protects records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, the release of which could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) and (b)(7)(C).

Please note that Exemption 7(A) protection is "temporal in nature." Citizens for Responsibility & Ethics in Wash. v. Dep't of Justice, 746 F.3d 1082, 1097 (D.C. Cir 2014) (citing NLRB v. Robbins Tire, 437 U.S. 214, 223-24 230-32 (1978)). As such, case file records may become disclosable, subject to applicable exemptions, after the case closes, that is, once a Board decision and/or court order issues, there has been full compliance with a settlement, or the case has otherwise been closed under Agency procedures. Accordingly, you may wish to file a new request at that time.

The status of this case can be tracked on the Agency website at www.nlr.gov by going to the Cases & Decisions tab, clicking case search, entering the case number in the search box and viewing the case page or by clicking the link here: <https://www.nlr.gov/case/07-CA-308263>.

For the purpose of assessing fees, we have placed you in Category A, commercial use requester. This category refers to requests "from or on behalf of a person who seeks information for a use or purpose that furthers the commercial, trade, or profit interests of the requester or the person on whose behalf the request is made, which can include furthering those interests through litigation." NLRB Rules and Regulations, 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(1)(v). Consistent with this fee category, you "will be assessed charges to recover the full direct costs of searching for, reviewing for release, and duplicating the records sought." 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(2)(ii)(A). Charges are $9.25 per quarter-hour of professional time. 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(2)(i).

Fifteen minutes of professional time was expended in searching for and reviewing for release the requested material. Accordingly, please remit $9.25.

Payment Instructions: We are no longer accepting checks or money orders as payment at this time. To submit payment for your FOIA request, please use www.pay.gov. From the www.pay.gov home page, scroll down to the bottom left corner to select "Pay a FOIA Request." Click "See all options" and go to "Filter By Agency" to check the box for the National Labor Relations Board. Continue following instructions on the website. Please remember to include the Invoice Number, which is the NLRB FOIA Case No., and the amount you intend to pay. Further, please be advised that all FOIA payments must be paid in full before any future FOIA requests are processed.

You may contact Jodilyn Breirather, the FOIA Specialist who processed your request, at (414) 930-7208 or by email at Jodilyn.Breirather@nlrb.gov, as well as the Agency's FOIA Public Liaison, for any further assistance and/or to discuss any aspect of your request. The FOIA Public Liaison, in addition to the FOIA Specialist, can further explain responsive and releasable agency records, suggest agency offices that may have responsive records, and/or discuss how to narrow the scope of a request in order to minimize fees and processing times. The contact information for the Agency's FOIA Public Liaison is:
